

February Bill Message

Please remember to shovel a path to your utility meters, clear snow from fire hydrants near your home or business and check to see that snow has not piled up around any heating or dryer vents.