

May Bill Message

May is National Electrical Safety Month, but Electrical safety is every hour of every day.

Identify and correct Electrical safety hazards around your home as part of your spring cleaning.

Teach children to respect Electricity and remember that water and electricity do not mix.